

“HUGE” Election Night Party *Supporting The Wounded Blue

Lt. Randy Sutton (Ret.) Joins the Festivities as the Guest of Honor

Omaha, Ne. (October 8, 2024) - Wendy Guyett, owner of a Dream Vacations franchise and Cool Logic Promotions, announced an election night party supporting law enforcement and benefiting The Wounded Blue, a nonprofit organization assisting injured police officers. The event, featuring retired Lt. Randy Sutton as the guest of honor, will take place on Tuesday, Nov. 5, 2024, at the Omaha Police Officers Association Hall from 6 to 11 p.m.

“My mission is to use my businesses to give back,” said Guyett. “They say those involved with charities are healthier, happier people –and that’s a great motivator!”

Guyett explained that she chose to support law enforcement for the event due to the challenges officers face. “Police risk their lives every day to protect law and order and keep Americans safe. Their jobs have become more dangerous in recent years. None of us can truly comprehend what it’s like to be a police officer today, but we can do our part to show them we care by supporting them.”

Lt. Randy Sutton (Ret.), founder of The Wounded Blue, will be the event’s guest of honor. “Our nation depends on us to believe in our democracy and our democracy depends on us to vote. I’m honored to celebrate democracy with you,” said Sutton. The Nov. 5 event will donate a portion of the proceeds to The Wounded Blue to support police everywhere. In addition, Sutton and Guyett are planning a 2025 police group cruise to promote the mental health and well-being of law enforcement officers with more details to be announced during the event.

The election night party will feature two big screens broadcasting live election coverage, an emcee, food, and music. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit this LINK \(https://bit.ly/3U1Fwsr\) or scan the QR code below.

About The Wounded Blue

The Wounded Blue is a national nonprofit organization dedicated to providing critical support for law enforcement officers injured in the line of duty. Founded by retired Lt. Randy Sutton, the organization offers a lifeline to officers through peer support programs, mental health services, and advocacy. By connecting injured officers with others who have faced similar challenges, The Wounded Blue helps to reduce feelings of isolation while addressing the emotional and psychological toll of police work. The organization also advocates for improved healthcare access, financial assistance, and systemic change to better support injured officers across the country. Through education and community outreach, The Wounded Blue fosters public awareness of the unique stresses and dangers faced by law enforcement officers and ensures that no officer is left behind.
